

Deuteronomy 4v1-14 Listen carefully and live

Why does God give his people the law?

Listen to God's life bringing law

What did God give his law to do?

Which of the following must Israel not do to the law (Circle your answer):

Can you think of any of God's commands we might be tempted to edit or add to?

Put God's word into practice so the world sees

What does it mean to "observe them carefully"?

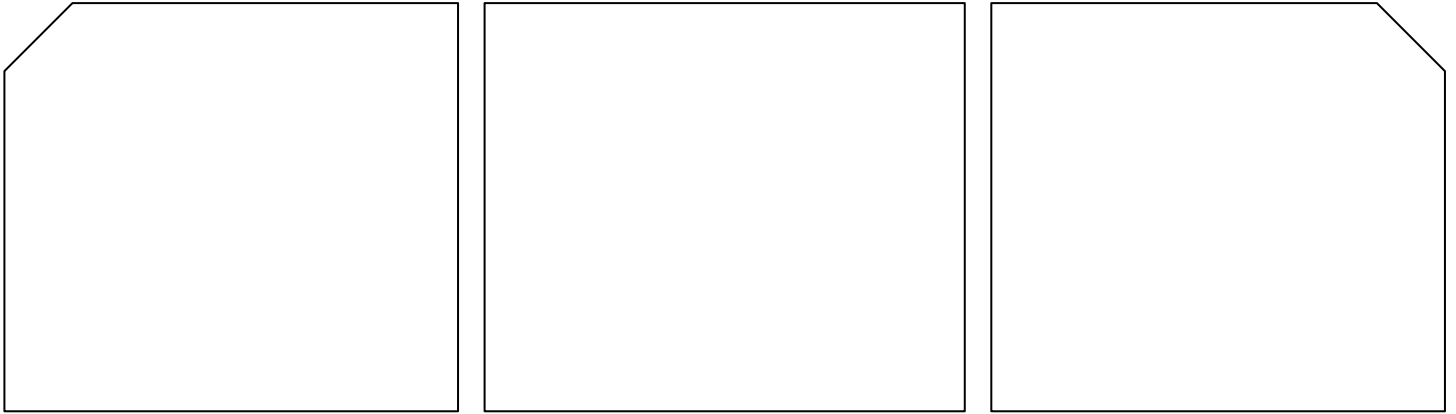

Can you unscramble the following to learn what wisdom is:

siWmod    si    gnowink    who    ot    evil    llikfulys

sa    soGd'    popeel    onjiyeng    osd'G    nesencerp    ni
-----

od'Gs    drolw

Can you think of some of the wisdom that God's law teaches us and draw what that looks like?

Three empty rectangular boxes arranged horizontally, intended for drawing. The first box on the left has a small triangular cutout at the top-left corner. The middle box is a simple rectangle. The third box on the right has a small triangular cutout at the top-right corner.

Remember, take care teach others

What did you get last Christmas? How did you feel about it then? How do you feel about it now?

Can you draw what Israel saw on the day the law was given?

A large, empty rounded rectangular box intended for drawing a scene from the Bible.

What did they not see? But what did they hear and how should they respond?

What do we remember? How can we help others not forget it or let it fade?

If you have time why not do one of the following:
